

GENERAL CONDITIONS GOVERNING THE SALE AND DELIVERY OF PRODUCTS to consumers, including distance selling

1 Applicability of these General Conditions

1.1 These conditions apply, to the exclusion of any other conditions, to all offers, agreements and deliveries regarding products created or offered by Aptum/ Ontwerpduo V.O.F. (hereafter: Aptum)

1.2 The following definitions are used in these General Conditions:

- a. Aptum the company who sells products;
- b. Buyer Aptum's counterparty;
- c. Consumer a Buyer not acting in the conduct of a profession or business;
- d. Consumer Purchase a purchase between Aptum and a Consumer;
- e. Distant Purchase a Consumer Purchase whereby the agreement is concluded via the Internet or by telephone, fax or post.

2 Offers and agreements

2.1 An offer or quotation will be valid during the specified term or while stocks last.

2.2 In the case of distance selling, agreements between Aptum and the Buyer will be concluded on acceptance of the offer by the Buyer and compliance with the stipulated conditions.

2.3 Aptum will have the right to make use of third parties in the performance of the agreement. Any and all rights and claims stipulated in these Conditions and in any further agreements for the benefit of Aptum will equally apply to any agents and other third parties engaged by Aptum.

3 Price adjustments

3.1 If the prices of raw materials or wages, import duties, taxes or other external costs increase after the conclusion of the agreement (whether or not due to currency fluctuations), Aptum will have the right to adjust the purchase price to that increase.

3.2 Aptum must inform the Buyer of such a circumstance as soon as possible, after which the Buyer will have the right to dissolve the agreement, unless it has been stipulated that the delivery will take place more than three (3) months after the purchase or the increase is due to a statutory price increase.

4 Delivery

4.1 Aptum will state a delivery period, absent which a 30-day delivery period will apply. Specified delivery and other terms will not be of the essence, unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing. If a term is exceeded, the consumer must provide a further term in which to deliver. If that term is also exceeded, the consumer may dissolve the agreement.

4.2 If Aptum requires information from the Buyer for the performance of the agreement, or if full or partial payment in advance has been stipulated, the delivery term will not commence until Aptum has received the correct and full information or the payment in advance.

4.3 Delivery to consumers will take place in the manner stated by Aptum during the purchase process and at the address stated by the Buyer upon the conclusion of the agreement, including delivery at the post office or at neighbours/third parties specified by the Buyer on the grounds of absence. The risk in the products delivered will pass to the Buyer on the moment of delivery.

4.4 If the Buyer refuses to take delivery, Aptum may charge him the resulting costs. In that case Aptum will also have the right to dissolve the agreement, without prejudice to his right to claim full damages.

5 Retention of title

All products delivered will remain Aptum's property until the Buyer has fulfilled all his obligations towards Aptum under the agreement.

6 Dissolution and return of products

6.1 After the order has been confirmed, the Buyer may amend or cancel it only with Aptum's prior consent. If Aptum has already incurred costs or will incur costs as a result of the amendment or cancellation, Aptum may charge those costs to the Buyer. In the case of distance selling the Buyer has the right within fourteen (14) working days after receipt of the product to cancel the purchase in writing without stating any reasons, by means of an unequivocal statement or using the return form on Aptum's website.

6.2 If the purchase price and shipping costs have already been paid, they must be repaid as soon as possible but no later than fourteen (14) days after Aptum was informed that the Buyer wishes to cancel the purchase, unless Aptum has reason to believe that the products returned have already been opened, even though that was not necessary in order to assess the product, or used, or have been damaged due to any act on the part of the Buyer. Repayment must be made using the same means of payment as that by which the original transaction was made, unless the Buyer expressly agrees otherwise.

6.3 The Buyer must return the product immediately or in any event no later than fourteen (14) days after the day on which the Buyer informed Aptum of its decision to cancel the agreement. Aptum may wait before making the repayment until it has received the product or the Buyer has demonstrated that the product has been returned, whichever is sooner.

6.4 Article 6.2 will not apply to the Distance Purchase of:

- a. products whose price is subject to fluctuations on the financial market beyond Aptum control;
- b. products that:
  - 1) were produced in accordance with the Buyer's specifications;
  - 2) are clearly of a personal nature;
  - 3) cannot be returned due to their nature; or
  - 4) are subject to rapid spoilage or ageing.
- c. audio and video recordings and software if the seal has been broken by the Buyer;
- d. newspapers or magazines; or
- e. services provided with the Consumer's approval before the end of the period of seven (7) working days.

6.5 Products delivered may be returned only with Aptum's prior written consent. The consumer must inform Aptum by sending an email to info@aptumlighting.com. The direct costs involved in the return shipment of the products in the context of this Article will be payable by the Buyer, unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing.

7 Payment

7.1 Aptum may at any time demand full or partial payment in advance or cash on delivery.

7.2 If products are delivered on account, the invoice amount must be paid within fourteen (14) days, without the Buyer being entitled to any discount or setoff.

7.3 If Aptum has not received (full) payment at the end of the payment period, the Buyer will be in default and will owe interest equal to the statutory interest rate that applies to consumer transactions. All costs incurred by Aptum in connection with late payment, such as procedural costs and judicial and extrajudicial costs, including the costs of legal assistance, bailiffs and debt collection agencies, will be payable by the Buyer. The extrajudicial costs will be charged on the basis of the Extrajudicial Collection Costs Decree. The fees in that Decree are:

- Minimum rate €40
- 15% on the first €2,500
- 10% on the next €2,500
- 5% on the next €5,000
- 1% on the next €190,000
- 0.5% on the excess of the principal, subject to a maximum of €6,775

7.4 Before charging collection costs, Aptum will send the consumer a demand for payment in which Aptum is given a period of fourteen (14) days after the day of the demand for payment in which to pay the claim after all.

8 Right of suspension and dissolution

8.1 In addition to the provisions regarding force majeure and the provisions of Article 6, Aptum will have the right to suspend (in full or in part) the performance of its obligations under all agreements that exist between the parties or to dissolve those agreements in full or in part without any notice of default or judicial intervention being required:

- a. if the Buyer is in default or Aptum has good reason to believe that the Buyer will not perform its obligations in full and/or in time;
- b. in the event of liquidation, a suspension of payment, a petition for a suspension of payment, bankruptcy or debt rescheduling, or any other circumstance as a result of which the Buyer can no longer freely dispose of its capital; or
- c. if circumstances occur as a result of which it is impossible to perform the agreement or Aptum cannot reasonably be required to continue the agreement in an unamended form.

8.2 In the cases referred to in paragraph 8.1 any obligations of the Buyer will furthermore fall due immediately and Aptum will not be required to pay any damages. The latter will not apply in the event of dissolution on the grounds of circumstances for which the Consumer cannot be blamed.

9 Guarantees and complaints

9.1 The products to be supplied by Aptum will meet the customer requirements and standards that can reasonably be set at the moment of delivery and for which they are intended in the event of normal use. If applicable, guarantee provisions of suppliers and third parties, such as producers and importers, will apply to the products supplied by Aptum.

9.2 If the product is used outside the Netherlands, the Buyer itself must verify whether the products are suitable for use there and whether they meet the conditions and the applicable statutory and other requirements.

9.3 The Buyer will be required to inspect the products delivered immediately after receipt. Any defects established must be reported to Aptum in writing, stating the reasons, within two (2) months or in the case of external defects immediately.

9.4 If it has been proven that a product is not in conformity with the agreement and the complaint was filed in a timely manner, Aptum may, at its option, replace the product in question, arrange for repairs, or refund the invoice price plus any shipping costs paid.

9.5 The guarantee provided in this article only applies, insofar as legally permitted, if the buyer has fulfilled all his obligations towards Aptum.

9.6 All data, designs and images regarding colours, materials, dimensions and finishing will be for information purposes only. Divergences will not be reason for rejection, discount, dissolution of the agreement or damages if such divergences are minor.

9.7 The replacement or repair of the products during the warranty period does not result in an extension of this period. Repair or replacement, including administration, shipping and transport costs, other than on the basis of the warranty referred to in this article, will be charged by Aptum to the buyer.

9.8 Exceptions

Not covered by the warranty:

- natural wear and tear
- wear by inappropriate and careless use
- damage by sharp, hot or damp objects
- environmental influences such as drought, humidity, light and temperature in adverse conditions
- damage caused by accidents or for reasons of Act of God, such as lightning, floods, fires, or resulting from environmental, climatic or any other conditions affecting the product

- discoloration by (sun) light
- product and material
- specific properties that are excluded from warranty
- damage caused by insufficient or incorrect installation, carried out by a party other than Aptum or without written permission from Aptum
- unauthorized attempts at cleaning, repair or improvement
- by use of materials and spare parts which are not original, or consumables which are inappropriate (for example light bulbs)
- electrical systems not in compliance with current sector regulations
- damage caused by transport and/or movement

10 Intellectual property rights

10.1 The Buyer expressly acknowledges that all intellectual and/or industrial property rights in respect of the products, materials and information made available to the Buyer by Aptum, including samples, packaging, labels and designs (and their appearance), the composition and/or specifications of samples, products and semi-finished products, as well as technical and commercial know-how, models, moulds, designs and patterns, vest in Aptum, its supplier or other parties entitled.

10.2 If and insofar as Aptum manufactures products or packaging on the basis of express instructions given by the Buyer, such as specifications, designs, sketches, models or patterns provided by the Buyer, the Buyer warrants that no third-party rights will be infringed. The Buyer indemnifies Aptum against any third-party claims in this context and will reimburse all costs incurred by Aptum in connection with such claims.

11 Liability for damage

11.1 Aptum will not be liable for damage caused:

- a. by incompetent use of the products delivered or use for a purpose other than that for which they are suitable by objective standards;
- b. because Aptum used incorrect or incomplete data provided by or on behalf of the Buyer;
- c. third parties engaged in a performance of the agreement at the Buyer's request or with the Buyer's consent;
- d. materials or services provided by third parties at the Buyer's request or with the Buyer's consent; or
- e. misunderstandings, damage, delays or the improper receipt of orders and notifications due to the use of the Internet or any other means of communication (whether or not electronic).

11.2 Only direct loss attributable to Aptum will qualify for compensation. Any and all liability for indirect loss, including but not limited to consequential loss, loss of profits, damaged or lost data or materials, and loss of proceeds is excluded. In the case of Consumer Purchase the scope of this provision will be limited to that permitted under Article 7:24(2) of the Dutch Civil Code.

11.3 Insofar as Aptum is liable for the reimbursement of loss, that loss will be limited to the invoice amount for the delivery or partial delivery in question, on the understanding that that amount will not exceed € 45,000 and will in any event be limited to the amount that the insurer pays Aptum in the case in question.

11.4 The Buyer indemnifies Aptum against any and all claims from third parties that incur losses in connection with the performance of the agreement and for the cause of which the Buyer is to blame.

11.5 The limitations recorded in Article 11.1 to 11.14 will not apply:

- a. if the loss is due to intent or gross negligence on the part of Aptum or its executive or non-executive subordinates;

- b. in the event of product liability towards a Consumer within the meaning of Book 6, Part 3, Chapter 3, of the Dutch Civil Code.

12 Force majeure

12.1 If Aptum is unable to perform the agreement due to an event of force majeure, it will have the right to suspend its obligations until the event of force majeure has ended. If that period lasts longer than two (2) months, either of the parties will have the right to dissolve the agreement in respect of the products affected by the event of force majeure, without being required to compensate the loss incurred by the other party. In that case the Buyer will be required to pay for the products already delivered.

12.2 In these General Conditions, 'force majeure' means, among other things, in addition to the definition of that term in the law and in case law, all external causes beyond Aptum's control, either foreseen or unforeseen, as a result of which Aptum is unable to fulfil its obligations.

13 Dutch law and competent court

13.1 This Agreement is governed by Dutch law, also if an obligation is performed abroad in full or in part or if the Buyer has its place of residence there. The applicability of the Vienna Sales Convention is excluded.

13.2 In the event of disputes, the court of the Buyer's place of residence will be the competent court.

13.3 The parties will submit a dispute to the court only after they have made every effort to settle the dispute in consultation.

14 Other provisions

14.1 The Dutch text of these General Conditions will at all times be decisive in the interpretation of these General Conditions.

14.2 Amendments and/or additions to these General Conditions will be valid and applicable only if recorded in writing. If Aptum uses additional conditions or any provisions that conflict with these General Conditions, that will not affect the validity and applicability of other provisions of these General Conditions.

14.3 These General Terms and Conditions are a translation of the Verkoop- en leveringsvoorwaarden Producten (t.b.v. consumenten, incl. koop op afstand) of the Association of Dutch Designers (BNO). In the event of any discrepancies between these two Terms and Conditions, the Dutch text will prevail.
